A, §23 (b)(3) in order to dispel any appearance of potential out below, that I may be improperly or unduly influenced in the performance of my official duties, or that I would be likely to act or fail to act as a result of kinship, rank, position or the undue influence of any part or person.

Name:	Stephen M. Brewer
Title or Position:	Senator, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Ways & Means
Agency/Department:	Massachusetts Senate
Agency address:	Massachusetts State House
Office Phone:	617-722-1540
I publicly disclose the following facts (Attach additional pages if necessary):	My daughter is presently employed as the Communications & Advocacy Liaison at United Way Youth Venture of North Central Massachusetts. The United Way and Youth Venture have a partnership to promote civic engagement among young adults in the region. Legislators from the region have been asked to support funding for this program in the upcoming budget. While my daughter's salary is not contingent on this funding, I plan to recuse myself from advocating for this funding.

G.L.c.268 A, §23 (b)(3): No current officer or employee of a state, county or municipal agency shall knowingly, or with reason to know, act in a manner which would cause a reasonable person, having knowledge of the relevant circumstances, to conclude that any person can improperly influence or unduly enjoy his favor in the performance of his official duties, or that he is likely to act or fail to act as a result of kinship, rank, position or undue influence of any party or person. It shall be unreasonable to so conclude if such officer or employee has disclosed in writing to his appointing authority or, if no appointing authority exists, discloses in a manner which is public in nature, the facts which would otherwise lead to such a conclusion.

Appointed state, county and municipal officials and employees should file with their appointing authority.

Elected state officials should file with the appropriate House or Senate Clerk or the Ethics Commission.

Elected county officials should file with the county clerk.

Elected municipal officials should file with the city or town clerk.
