June 6, 2012

The Honorable Steven Grossman
Office of the State Treasurer
State House, Room 227
Boston, MA 02133

Dear Treasurer Grossman:

As part of its organizational process, the Massachusetts Gaming Commission is about to consider adoption of a variety of personnel policies, including policies that deal with vacations, sick leave, insurance, benefits and other common ingredients of a comprehensive personnel policy. In addition, pursuant to G.L. c. 23K, § 3(m), the Commission will soon begin work on a code of ethics that is more restrictive than the code contained in G.L. c. 268A and 268B. The more restrictive code may, among other things, impose restrictions on the financial affairs of Commissioners and Commission staff more stringent than those contained in existing law.

Although my duties as a Commissioner require me to participate in creation and promulgation of the personnel policies and ethics code just described, those policies and that code may affect my personal financial interests. If so, participation in the creation and promulgation process would amount to participation in a "particular matter" in which I have a financial interest. Therefore, pursuant to G.L. c. 268A, § 6, I am notifying you, as one of my three appointing authorities, of the issue and requesting that you make the determination § 6 requires. For that purpose, I am enclosing the form the State Ethics Commission has created for reporting like matters. I am sending a similar request to Governor Patrick and General Coakley.

I shall be happy to discuss with you or any member of your staff any questions you have regarding this matter. Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Gayle Cameron
Commissioner
