JCRC Seminar in Israel for Community Leaders 2012

For decades, community leaders throughout the Commonwealth have experienced the rich culture, dynamic history, and innovative high-tech economy of Israel with the JCRC of Greater Boston. Following the success of Governor Patrick's Trade Mission to Israel last spring, the JCRC will be reviving the tradition of bringing elected officials to Israel. On December 10-19, 2012, we will conduct a Seminar for Community Leaders. The Seminar will join with the Massachusetts Water Innovation Mission to Israel for selected events and allow participants to be part of this important follow-up to the Governor's Trade Mission.

JCRC Israel Seminars offer unique opportunities to meet the people of Israel and to gain a better understanding of the complexities and challenges facing the country and the region. Participants will travel the length and breadth of Israel, learning from government officials and religious, academic, media and business leaders. We will also visit historical and religious sites such as Jerusalem's Old City and Nazareth's Church of the Annunciation. Participants will visit Boston's partner city, Haifa, and explore Israel's booming high-tech and clean-tech sectors. We will meet with Jews, Muslims, and Christians; Israelis and Palestinians; and figures representing a wide spectrum of political and social thought.

Participation

We ask that participants commit to the following events:

- A Pre-Trip Orientation Session
- Participation in the Seminar to Israel: travel dates, December 10th – December 19th, 2012
- A Post-Trip Reunion

The goal for this trip is to enable participants to develop their own relationship with Israel as well as an understanding of the complex and nuanced realities of life in the region. Upon return, we ask participants to commit to sharing their reflections with their communities.

Questions

Please contact Aviva Berezin at aberezin@jcrcboston.org or call 617-457-8679 with questions about the Seminar for Community Leaders.

Good Afternoon Senator,

I wanted to let you know about the Jewish Community Relations Council's Study Tour to Israel, scheduled for December 10-19th, 2012. This is an opportunity for elected officials to learn about the State of Israel and our cultural, economic, and social relationships. If you are interested, we urge you to send in your application as soon as possible due to limited space and limited availability of subsidies. Subsidies are available on a first-come, first-served basis and we ask participants to contribute as much as they can afford.

I have attached the one-pager and the application for your review. Please let me know if you have any additional questions.
