	In my capacity as a state, county or municipal employee, I am expected to take certain actions in the performance of my official duties. Under the circumstances, a reasonable person could conclude that a person or organization could unduly enjoy my favor or improperly influence me when I perform my official duties, or that I am likely to act or fail to act as a result of kinship, rank, position or undue influence of a party or person. I am filing this disclosure to disclose the facts about this relationship or affiliation and to dispel the appearance of a conflict of interest.
	APPEARANCE OF FAVORITISM OR INFLUENCE
Describe the issue that is coming before you for action or decision.	Paul Garbarini, JD, RPh occasionally speaks on pharmacy law at Continuing Pharmacy Education programs at/for Northeastern University School of Pharmacy.
What responsibility do you have for taking action or making a decision?	This action is being taken voluntarily to dispel any appearance of a conflict of interest.
Explain your relationship or affiliation to the person or organization.	Paul Garbarini and I are colleagues at Northeastern University School of Pharmacy. Paul Garbarini is a professor of Jurisprudence and the Pharmacy Law portion of the Board Review. He occasionally teaches the law component of continuing pharmacy education programs. I am the Director of Continuing Pharmacy Education (CPE) at Northeastern University School of Pharmacy. Part of my duties is to arrange CPE programs that include pharmacy law for the pharmacists registered in Massachusetts.
How do your official actions or decision matter to the person or organization?	My official actions or decisions do not matter to the person or organization.
Optional: Additional facts – e.g., why there is a low risk of undue favoritism or improper influence.	There is absolutely NO risk of undue favoritism or improper influence. I am honored to be a member of the Board of Registration in Pharmacy and to serve the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in this capacity. I would do nothing to jeopardize the trust or the oath I swore to uphold.

If you cannot confirm this statement, you should recuse yourself.	WRITE AN X TO CONFIRM THE STATEMENT BELOW. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Taking into account the facts that I have disclosed above, I feel that I can perform my official duties objectively and fairly.
