Pursuant to G.L.c. 268A, §1(o), please be advised that the terms and conditions of the firm's agreements with these state agencies permit the attorneys listed above to engage in private work during normal working hours and that, in any event, none of the attorneys mentioned above earned compensation as a state employee for an aggregate of more than 800 hours during the preceding 365 days. Therefore, each of the attorneys listed above qualifies for treatment as a "special state employee" of their respective state agencies, as listed above.

Finally, please be advised that this firm, and the individuals listed above, reserve the right to assert, with respect to any past, present or future state contract under which the firm or its attorneys are engaged to perform legal services, that it is the firm as an entity, and not individual attorneys, which is intended by state agencies to be engaged under such state contracts. By making these disclosures, neither the firm nor the individuals listed above waive any such claims as to the past, present or future application of G.L. c.268A.

Sincerely,

Janet Steckel Lundberg
