This first-of-its-kind Summit will bring together 80-100 juvenile and criminal justice leaders—including policy makers, practitioners, researchers, formerly incarcerated people, judges, elected officials, and advocates—to learn about reform initiatives in this burgeoning field. National and international experts will provide attendees with an overview of relevant and cutting-edge research on the distinct developmental population of 18-to-25-year-olds transitioning to adulthood. They will also share innovative policies and practices aimed at providing effective and developmentally appropriate responses for emerging adults involved in the justice system.

	By bringing together leaders from various U.S. jurisdictions that are actively considering and working on emerging adult justice reforms, the Summit will provide an invigorating platform to learn from each other and make connections that will hopefully lead to ongoing collaborations for years to come. The fare you are traveling is non-refundable and not changeable unless otherwise stated. Please ask your Travel Expert for exact cancellation and change penalties charged by the airline.

After your scheduled day of departure your paid flight reservation becomes non-refundable and might be non-changeable. If you do not show up for your paid flight, the ticket will no longer have any value. Any changes resulting in a higher fare require the difference be paid in addition to the penalty. Route changes incur cancellation penalties and are not permitted after departure, if at all. All changes are subject to space availability in the class of service you have purchased.

Some tickets are required to be changed directly with the airline, and we can provide the information to you for those cases. Changes made directly through the carrier may incur a service charge. Please call your Travel Expert for your specific change and cancellation fees. Travel Experts are also available 24/7 for date change and refund assistance at 1-800-836-4115 or at travelhelp@statravel.com.

STA Travel will allow a customer to cancel a purchased ticket for a full refund without penalty for up to 24 hours after purchase. This policy applies to refundable as well as non-refundable fares, so long as travel is purchased at least 7 days in advance.

To request a full refund on a ticket cancelled within 24 hours of purchase, please call one of our Travel Experts or visit your local store. For urgent requests, Travel Experts are also available 24/7 for date change and refund assistance at 1-800-836-4115.

Any STA Travel service fee applied is non-refundable.

To change a reservation more than 24 hours after purchase, the ticket will incur the current change fee, if allowed at all on the fare, regardless of when the tickets were purchased. STA Travel charges USD$75.00 for ticket changes and USD$100.00 for refunds in addition to airline penalties.

All flights must be reconfirmed by contacting the airlines directly. Government Issued photo identification is required for check in on all flights. If traveling on one ticket with multiple airlines the baggage allowance rules and fees of the first airline in your itinerary apply to the entire ticket.
