	OFFICIAL ACTION IN RELATION TO THE GIVER
As a public employee, what have you done in relation to the giver in the past?	Describe, e.g., matters that previously came before you that involved the giver or the type of service you previously have provided in relation to the giver. The office of the District Attorney works with Roca to address juvenile issues, to include restorative justice and re-entry programs. Roca also provides jobs and opportunities for individuals that are attempting to avoid the criminal justice system as well as to those that may have been incarcerated and getting back into the workforce.
Describe what you expect to do as a public employee in relation to the giver in the future.	Describe, e.g., a matter that will come before you that involves the giver or the type of service you expect to provide in relation to the giver. The District Attorney's office may refer youth and emerging adults to Roca for community service and programming.
Date when you expect to take action as a public employee in relation to the giver.	Is a matter scheduled? Do you perform duties in relation to the giver on an ongoing basis? No specific date, just in the course of regular duties when appropriate.
If you cannot confirm this statement, you should recuse yourself.	WRITE AN X TO CONFIRM THE STATEMENT BELOW. __X__ Taking into account the facts that I have disclosed about the gift, I feel that I can perform my official duties objectively and fairly in relation to the giver.
