Please explain how the activity will promote the interests of the Commonwealth, a county or a municipality.	CSG East is a major partner in defining the ever changing national and international issues confronting states and providing opportunities for state policymakers to engage in discussions on important issues. My attendance at this event enabled me to engage in such conversations as well as strengthen my connections to the CSG, its constituent members, and leaders in other states, all of which will positively impact and inform my work in the Senate and for my constituents.
